

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLAINTIFF

v.

NO. 4:07CR00376 JLH

LANGSTON LEWIS ROBINS

DEFENDANT

ORDER

Langston Lewis Robins has filed a motion for psychiatric or psychological examination. The motion was previously granted. The United States Marshals Service for the Eastern District of Arkansas has informed the Court that Langston Lewis Robins has been designated to the METROPOLITAN CORRECTIONAL CENTER (MCC) in Chicago, Illinois for the examination. Accordingly, the United States Marshals Service is directed to transport Langston Lewis Robins to the METROPOLITAN CORRECTIONAL CENTER (MCC) in Chicago, Illinois forthwith.¹

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4247(b) and (c), Langston Lewis Robins shall be remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period not to exceed forty-five (45) days for a psychiatric or psychological examination pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4242 and for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days for a psychiatric or psychological examination pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241; and that unless impracticable, the psychiatric or psychological examination shall be conducted in a suitable facility closest to the Court.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4247(c), the person conducting the examination must file a report with this Court with copies to counsel for the United States, Assistant United States Attorney Linda B. Lipe, Post Office Box 1229, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72203, and to counsel for the defendant, Kim Driggers, Federal Public Defenders Office, 1401 West Capitol Avenue, Suite 490, Little Rock,

Arkansas 72201.

The report must state whether Langston Lewis Robins is suffering from a mental disease or defect that renders him mentally incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense; whether he was insane at the time of the offense; and, if he was insane, whether his release would create a substantial risk of bodily injury to another person or serious damage to property of another person.

Eleven (11) days from the date the examination report is received by the Court and the parties, any party who requests a hearing regarding any issues in the report or opposes the report must file a motion for hearing or a motion in opposition, including a concise statement of opposition to the report and supporting authorities. If no motions are filed within eleven (11) days, the Court will enter an Order adopting or rejecting the conclusions set forth in the report, and the period of excludable delay will end.²

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the delay occasioned by the examination ordered herein shall be excludable under the provisions of the Speedy Trial Act as provided by 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(A) and (H). Subsection (H) excludes the delay resulting from transportation to and from places of examination “except that any time consumed in excess of ten days from the date [of] . . . an order or an order directing such transportation, and the defendant’s arrival at the destination shall be presumed to be unreasonable.”

IT IS SO ORDERED this 27th day of June, 2008.

J. LEON HOLMES
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
